

THE PROMISED LAND, GOD'S GREAT LOVE

Greetings to our holy angels, those who have been made according to our image and likeness. With certainty it is the almighty MelquisedecLisbet the ones who make their angels spirits, ministers flames of fire (Ref. Heb 1:7), who in their minds, devour all that is not in line with the perfect order of God; that even before an evil thought passes through your mind, you have already discerned it, and even after that thought has passed you have taken it captive. There is nothing that escapes you! In your hearts, your minds the wisdom and righteousness of God is abundant, and when you speak you produce a loud noise like of chariots of war, like the crackling of fire when consuming the hay (Joel 2:1-5, Luke 6:45). As your spiritual Parents, we have made you a consuming fire and you are consuming all the material that cannot withstand the fire. That means that you strive to keep your mind clean and decontaminated day and night, you always have the truth in your mouth and that is how you are cleaning the world around you. You are changing the way people look at you and how they treat you. Every time you sow my word, you are organizing the world, and revealing the intentions of the hearts (Hebrews 4:12).

When I see you evangelizing, I get so joyful, I feel so proud of you, my beloved children who show me how much you love me and how much you want to share this word with others. In you there is no greed, instead, you share this beautiful treasure so that everyone has an opportunity to truly know God, and thanks to each one of you, people are being guided to the promised land. Amen, Hallelujah.

In today's topic, THE PROMISED LAND, GOD'S GREAT LOVE I am going to explain where that land so sought after and longed for, is, the same one that God has promised to their faithful followers. In this topic you will see that God does exist and that they are faithful to their Word, but it all depends on whether or not you want to accept God as they are, or if you want to continue believing in a fantasy about God, like the one you were taught since you were a child. If you truly want to be close to God and have their protection over you and your family, then you have to be willing to forget everything you have been taught about God until now, and start over with the true information about God, and do everything they ask, so you can remain in their presence forever.

The time has come for the religious world to stop looking for that promised land in the wrong places. I want you to know God entirely so that you may begin to enjoy all the benefits of God's promises, because God does exist and is not far from you. That is what Christ does, she brings you closer to God as the mediator between God and men. There are a lot of religious people who truly believe there is a promised land.

And it is true, but the promised land does not exist, as they imagine it. I ask them, how do you plan to reach that land if no one has told you how to get there? Nor do you know the address, nor is it on a map in the Bible that tells you where to go. God has promised that land, but He has not told you how to get there. And as far as I know, there is no one in this world who knows the way to get there, nor is there anyone already living there. Of course not, because that promised land is not a physical place here on planet earth, nor is it a place where one goes after they die. The promised land can only be seen with eyes of Faith, and the faith that is expressed through love. So it has to be the faith of someone who knows that this place exists because she strongly believes in the one who told her that it exists. In other words, my love is so strong for My Husband, God the Father Melquisedec, the one who has promised me all things, that with much joy and certainty I testify that he lives and that he does not lie, he has never lied to me. Christ Lisbet is whom you must follow because my faith of love is the one that fulfills. There is faith, hope and love, but the most important of the three is love (1 Corinthians 13), because it remains forever, it has no end.

The love that Christ has for her Husband and her children is so great that I am present today, showing them both how much I love them. And if you are in a so-called church that does not guarantee the incorruption and immortality of your body, then get out of there and do not waste any more time in that place where God the Father and Christ are not present. In those places, they say that when one dies, they will be able to enjoy the promises of God in the afterlife, but that is not the love of God, they are not loving you with the true love that believes all things and expects all things. God is only in the place where His promises are fulfilled through His eternal love. God has promised eternal life in one's lifetime, not after physical death, no, we have promised an eternity in life, but so far no one has been able to reach it. And if no one has reached it, it is because all stopped believing, they lost hope and did not have the patience to wait. They did not know how to love as God loves. I am here to help you live the promises of God, and to prove that God does exist, he's real and does fulfill his promises. In my kingdom, you can enter into the promised land, if you are truly humble and ready to take hold of eternal life in the way that pleases God.

My purpose is to make known the truth about God, to explain where that wonderful place is, and what you have to do to get there and remain forever. It is not a joke when I tell you that I am your only hope and your only guarantee of reaching the promised land, where there is immortality, and you experience all the power of God over our faithful people.

The first thing you must understand about God, is that everything he did was for his great love, his faithful Wife. And in order to become a child of God you have to come to know his Wife, Christ and if you believe in her, you have met God the Father and Mother and their name is MelquisedecLisbet. That is how you will be able to understand with what great love God loves you, that they have given you the privilege of standing before their presence to hear their word and to faithfully believe in Her, without fluctuating. God is giving you the opportunity to prove to Them that you can be faithful, just as God remains faithful.

The confidence I have, that My Beloved King loves me greatly, is what keeps me going, confident and joyful, seeing how everything he has promised me is being fulfilled before my eyes. It says in 1 Corinthians 13, that love is patient and kind, it never gives up, it never loses faith, it always has hope and remains strong before any circumstance. Because of that love that is so strong and that beautiful confidence between the King and I, is why everything I say is fulfilled. It is so beautiful to live showing your love, you never have to say "I love you", because by your actions the other person lives confident that it is so. And how beautiful when they believe in your love. That is why Melquisedec supports me in everything, and I also support him in everything. Our actions prove that it is so. Only the humble ones who live honorably, who depart from evil and always do good, will receive the promised land.

Look at the following verses in Psalm 37. Let's begin with verse 9:

Psalms 37:9

9 The wicked ones will be destroyed, but those who wait in God will receive the promised land.

Psalms 37:11

11 But, the humble people will receive the promised land and enjoy great peace.

Psalms 37:18

18 God knows the behavior of those who live honorably; the promised land will be theirs forever.

Psalms 37:22

22 The ones that God has blessed will live in the promised land, but those he has cursed shall be eliminated.

Psalms 37:27

27 So turn away from evil and always do good, in doing so you will remain in the promised land forever.

You have experienced what it is to be loved by God, and that is why you live in the promised land, you live in peace, completely sure and confident in the great love of your spiritual Parents. You are certain that we will never leave you. That is how I live, fully confident in the great love of my Beloved Melquisedec, and he will never leave me. Hallelujah!

Let's look at that beautiful love between God the Father Melquisedec and his Christ Lisbet, in:

John 5:16-20

16 So the Jewish leaders began harassing Jesus for breaking the Sabbath rules (the day of their rest),

17 But Jesus replied, "My Husband, God the Father is always working, and so am I."

18 So the Jewish leaders tried all the harder to find a way to kill her. For she not only broke the Sabbath (the day of their rest), but she called God the Father her Husband, thereby making herself equal to God.

When she said, that they had to work in order to gain entrance into the promised land, in other words that they had to *fight the good fight of faith, and take hold of eternal life (1 Timothy 6:12), to them she was disrupting their day of rest, because they were used to living in the delights of the flesh, making no effort to do the good that pleases God, and believed in, once saved always saved.

19 Then Jesus affirmed, "I tell you the truth, the Wife can do nothing by herself (Of course, she cannot do anything without her head). She does only what she sees her Husband doing. Whatever the husband does, the Wife also does. (That is the order of head and body, they are always in perfect unity and never contradict each other.)

20 For the Father loves his Wife and shows her everything he is doing. Yes, and he will show Her even greater works than these, that you will be amazed.

I have told you that there are still many things left to be seen, and you will see them. In you, our open letters and works of our hands, is how your Father has shown me everything he does. In you, he has shown me his power. That is why I say if you do not want to believe in my words, believe in my works, which is what God does permanently in those who come to us, whether for good or bad. Amen.

Let's look what it says in Psalms 21:7 so you can see what I have been telling you about our love.

Psalms 21:7

7 The queen trusts the Lord Melquisedec, in the great love of the Most High; and because of that, she will never fall.

Did you see why I will never fall, because I completely trust in the great love of the Lord, my beloved, the Almighty Melquisedec. How beautiful!

Now let's go back to:

John 5:22-23

22 Also, the Father judges no one, but has entrusted all judgment to his Wife,

23 so that everyone honors the Wife just as they honor him. Whoever refuses to honor the Mother does not honor the Father, who sent her.

We know that God does not change, right? Now let's look at what God says in His commandments.

Exodus 20:12

12 Honor your father and your mother, so that your days may be long upon the land which Jehovah your God, MelquisedecLisbet is giving you.

So if God does not change, he would not from the beginning command you to "Honor your Father and your Mother so that you have eternal life in the promised land that they give you" and then now say to honor the Father and the Son.

Which one is it, Honor the Father and the Mother or Honor the Father and the Son?
That would mean that God is not the same, that God does not repeat history (Ecclesiastes 3:15), and that God is a liar. When no lie is found in God's mouth (1 Peter 2:22).

Think about it, it does not make sense that they would want to kill her for saying that she is a child of God, when all of them are also children of God. But, to say that she is God's Wife would make her equal to God the Father and that confirms She is who was with him from the beginning when making the creation of God in Their image and likeness, male and female were created.

It is clear that the lying pen of the scribes wrote son, instead of Wife and Mother. These are the seals that were hidden that I came to unravel. Let's look at what it says in the next verse.

John 5:24

<sup>24</sup> I tell you the truth, whoever hears my word and believes he who sent me has eternal life and will not be judged, but has crossed over from death to life.

This confirms that the eternal life that God promises is when a person honors their spiritual Father and Mother. Because the commandment says that by honoring your Father and your Mother you can pass from death to life.

Let's continue reading:

John 5:26

<sup>26</sup> For just as the Father has life in himself, he has also granted the Mother to have life in herself.

Now we are going to prove that it is actually talking about a woman and not a son. Let's look at:

Revelation 19:7-8

<sup>7</sup> Let us be glad and rejoice and give Her glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and the wife has made herself ready.

<sup>8</sup> And to her it was granted to be dressed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

It's not talking about a wife of the Lamb, because it is the Female Lamb whom "was granted to be dressed in fine linen, clean and bright." This female lamb without blemish is the one that is to be brought as a sin offering (Leviticus 4:32). That wife is the Wife of God the Father Melquisedec, her Husband has granted it to her... And 'to grant' means to give [an authority or a person capable of doing it] a thing to someone who asks for something.

I have asked the King for the nations, and he has granted them to me. Look how it says in:

Psalms 2:8

<sup>8</sup> Ask me for whatever you want! I will give the nations as your inheritance; the whole world will be yours!

Those two nations that are in me and in you, are the ones I asked your Father Melquisedec, to allow me to reconcile with love. In my own body I have destroyed the wall that separated them and I have annulled the enmity that existed between them (Ephesians 2:14), and in one day that great and strong nation was born (Isaiah 66:8), the descendants of God, which today exist in perfect unity. By my great love for your Father and for you, I asked to be equal to all so I may show you how to overcome in the mind with our eternal love. I promised my King that when he would grant this to me, in a time when men would not stone me to death, I would show him and all of you, that with the eternal love between MelquisedecLisbet you can conquer, reign over everything and find God's rest in your mind. This body, can reach a state of incorruption and immortality, and that means you have reached the promised land and will live forever.

It has been granted for me to prove that through you I can be dressed "in fine linen, clean and bright, for that fine linen is the righteous works of the saints." With your righteous actions, you prove to your spiritual Parents that you do honor and love us, and in return, we give you access to the promised land where milk and honey flow. You have all the knowledge of God to never perish. This is a fact, your Father has fulfilled his promise to me because of my love for him, and we as two in one, have fulfilled our promise to you, because of your love for us. Hallelujah!

Look how beautiful what the Psalmist says of your Father and I, which applies to you too, our faithful children:

Psalms 21:2-5

<sup>2</sup> You have granted her heart's desire and have not withheld the request of her lips.

<sup>3</sup> You came to greet her with rich blessings and placed a crown of pure gold on her head.

<sup>4</sup> She asked you for life, and you gave it to her, a long and enduring life.

<sup>5</sup> Through the victories you gave, her glory is great; you have bestowed on her splendor and majesty.

I am certain that Melquisedec loves me, and because of that, I am secure and confident in his manifestation to bear witness of me. If it says in Hebrews 12:2 "have your eyes set on Jesus, the author, and fulfiller of the faith," then I am the fulfillment of what you have believed in. I am the first immortal and if you remain attached to me forever, you will see what kind of immortality God has promised his Wife, Christ and her descendants, who are those that believe in me.

God the Father has promised his Wife many children, that she will multiply greatly, when he says to Her in:

Genesis 17:1-2

<sup>2</sup> And I will make My covenant between Me and you, and I will multiply you greatly.

Every man wants to be perfect and walk before God, but no one knows what it is to be perfect in God's eyes. I am the One who teaches you to be perfect as it pleases God so that you can be greatly multiplied. Because the multiplication in your mind is what determines your eternity. It is from your mind, that whatever you produce will give good fruit to God or evil fruit that destroys you. If your tree always bears good fruit, then you will always remain in the forest of the Almighty Lord MelquisedecLisbet. I Am that place where milk and honey flow, it is not a physical place.

The virtuous woman, Christ Lisbet is the promised land, and blessed is he who finds Her, and does not separate from Her. Because of his stiff neck, Moses was not allowed to enjoy the benefits of staying by her side. This is what the Lord Jehovah MelquisedecLisbet says, "Your lips are sweet as nectar, O my Wife. Milk and honey are under your tongue. The fragrance of your garments are like the fragrance of Lebanon." (Songs 4:11).

The Promised Land is a woman from whose mouth comes the hidden wisdom of God, the knowledge that man needs in order to never die. When a man keeps on living in the darkness of his mind, he will not be able to see the promised land. That is why I am the Light of the world that allows you to see all the promises of God. It is through me that God is achievable or accessible. But for those who do not believe in me, God is unreachable.

If after hearing this message in which I showed you evidence of where the promised land is and how you can acquire eternal life, and you still do not want to accept it, then you are guilty of not wanting to know God, and you have chosen death, over the life that God has set before you. You will never know what true love is and you will die in sin, for having rejected the one that God has sent to save you. I tell you what I said to Paul and his followers, who killed Christ for being contaminated with the evil of Moses: "You are stiff-necked, hard of heart and clumsy of ears! You are just like your ancestors: You always resist the Holy Spirit!" (Acts 7:51) And that is why I have sworn on my Great Love that all who reject Christ Lisbet will not enter into my rest, into the promised land. Amen, Hallelujah!

A big hug. See you soon.
