

EVIDENCE OF A TRUTH ABOUT THE CHRIST THAT THEY WANTED TO HIDE

GOD IS TWO IN ONE

THE TRUTH ABOUT GOD AND HIS WIFE

The world needs to know the fact that God is two in one. The purpose of this publication is to make the truth known, a truth that was hidden for ages and generations. This means that the Almighty and Everlasting God who everyone speaks about, based on religious or philosophical statements, whether for good or for bad, has a wife and She is Christ.

DEATH OF CHRIST

The death of Christ on the cross of Calvary two thousand years ago should lead us to question whether it was a sacrifice for the benefit of salvation and eternal life for mankind, or simply an atrocious crime that could have been avoided. There is a great deal of evidence to the fact that what happened on the cross was a horrific murder, which did not achieve the purpose of helping humanity receive immortality.

Let's read 1 Corinthians 2:7-8

⁷ But we speak God's secret wisdom that has been hidden from everyone until now. God planned this wisdom for our glory. He planned it before the world began.

⁸ None of the rulers of this world understood this wisdom. If they had understood it, they would not have killed our great and glorious Lord on a cross."

We understand that this is a completely new and shocking approach, particularly for someone who has been educated by religious beliefs, supported entirely on concepts and interpretations that are incorrect.

In this document you will also learn the name of God the Father, together with the new name of Jesus Christ. Once you know these two names, you will be able to direct your prayers to God by his name and the correct name of Christ, the only name in which the Father hears and answers prayers.

We invite you to review the evidence presented here and we hope that they will serve to awaken your curiosity, leading you to investigate further, and reexamine your way of thinking. Because we assure you that there are many hidden riches of wisdom that have been revealed today, as a result of Christ being present.

Rest assured that what you are about to read is nothing like what many men in the past have tried to explain about Jesus Christ. Why? Because, only Christ can reveal the truth about herself.

We can conclude that Christ was killed because they did not understand her mission or her message.

To learn the truth about the murder committed on Mount Calvary in depth, we invite you to acquire the following material:

"THE CROSS OF CALVARY, SACRIFICE OR ATROCIOUS CRIME?"

WHAT CHRIST AND WHAT RESURRECTION?

CHAPTER 1

EVIDENCE

1 Corinthians 15:22-23

²² For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive

²³ But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him.

In this chapter we would like to clarify a matter that has caused confusion, and is something that is part of the doctrinal content of religion today. We refer to the fact that everyone thinks that what happened on the cross over two thousand years ago, solved the issue of the relationship between man and God and that because of that bloody event, humanity is already saved, simply by believing in what historians have told us. But if we look at the passage above in detail, we will find expressions that are worth analyzing:

“ But each in turn: Christ, the firstfruits;”

This postulate immediately invites us to ask: did the Christ from the first century not resurrect? Why does She have to be resurrected again when She returns?

Let's not lose sight of the words: “made alive”, because it indicates that the mortal body will never die again. If we see that men continue to die since the first century until today, this further proves that the act on the cross was not useful, because had it been so, every person who believed in that historic event, would have been redressed with immortality.

It is today, when humanity has the wonderful opportunity to experience immortality. For that reason, it is essential to understand that Christ had to manifest and by doing so, She had to show evidence and when She presented herself, those who listen must receive her, but not through a mystical prayer, like the Protestant religious system teaches, but rather as a result of seeing and hearing her.

"Today humanity has the wonderful opportunity to experience immortality"

WE MUST SEE AND HEAR CHRIST

CHAPTER 2

As discussed in the previous chapter, the work of Christ in the first century did not benefit anyone, proof of this is found in the expression:

“And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life”.

Immediately, we see that two people are mentioned here, one who sends and another one who is sent. But in order to be beneficiaries of eternal life or immortality, it is very important to see Christ, and unfortunately none of us who inhabit planet earth today, had the opportunity to meet the Christ of the ancient Palestine.

"The world must see and believe in a Christ manifested in a visible way"

Let's underline another aspect shown in the biblical quotation above: “and believes in Him”. In order for a person to believe in someone, they must know their statements and ideas. Now, we want to emphasize on this; the world must see and believe in a Christ who is manifested in a visible and material way, and not as the distorted figure presented by religion, which different sects, both Catholics and Protestants have insisted on presenting in such an incorrect way, pretending that those religious entities are the spokespersons or representatives of God on Earth.

We also want to highlight another concept, “and I will raise him up at the last day”. This immediately leads us to understand and reaffirm that no one received the resurrection two thousand years ago. The text is clear when it says: “the last day”. This should be related to the present manifestation of Christ on Earth.

EVIDENCE

John 6:40

⁴⁰ And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

"Two thousand years ago nobody received the resurrection"

CHRIST IS THE SON OF MAN

CHAPTER 3

The purpose of this chapter is to make the reader aware of another serious error by which religion has misled mankind for centuries, and we are talking about the coming of Christ to Earth. Religious tales have taught that the Second Coming of Christ would be in a resounding and thunderous way, flying through the clouds with the sound of trumpets, however the confused theologians forgot a very fine detail that is expressed many times in the Bible when Christ is mentioned, and it is:

“the coming of the Son of Man”.

Christ would not come in the mystical way that religion has said

We ask ourselves the following question: Why doesn't it simply refer to Christ? Because, Christ would not come in the mystical way that religion has preached. Let's look at the concept of a son of man; a person who comes into the world as a result of being conceived by a man and given birth to by a woman. So stop looking at the clouds, because in the same way that She came into the world in the past, She has come today and she is among us.

We do not want to close this chapter without leading the reader to consider a simple statement, based on:

“For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark”.

The coming of the Son of man is compared to the days of Noah. What was special about those days? The construction of a large

EVIDENCE

Matthew 24:37-39

³⁷ But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

³⁸ For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark,

³⁹ and did not understand until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

boat. Noah and his family built this ship and it does not say that the Ark was made in a mystical way. The problem the people of those days had is that they: “did not understand until the flood came”.

“...so will be the coming of the Son of Man”

¿What does "son of man" mean?

A person who comes into the world as a result of being conceived by a man and given birth to by a woman.

CHRIST IS A WOMAN, THE WIFE OF GOD

CHAPTER 4

This passage in Genesis is familiar to most of the people who, in one way or another have had access to the information that relates to the creation of man. The names of Adam and Eve are very common in the minds of many people. For the vast majority of mankind they were the first human beings. But that is not the point with which we'd like to begin the following evidence. The point to which we want to draw the reader's attention to is:

“So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them”.

Here we find a word that repeats itself. and we are referring to the word “image”. Let's see what it means.

Image: The concept of image comes from the Latin word imāgō and it can be defined as a physical likeness or representation of a person, animal, or thing, photographed, painted, sculptured, or otherwise made visible.

Order of Head and Body

By understanding that God consists of a male and a female, head and body, we can see the perfect order established for couples.

EVIDENCE

Genesis 1:27

²⁷ So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

So then, based on this definition we find that the end result of the creation: “male and female”, is derived from the fact that God is two and by being a projected image of the original, we can conclude that God consists of a male and a female.

We have another conclusive evidence given by the apostle Paul, where we can clearly see that God has a wife.

1 Corinthians 11:3

³ But I want you to understand this: The head of every man is Christ. And the head of a woman is the man. And the head of Christ is God.

When reading: “And the head of a woman is the man”. We find ourselves with a very clear statement about the order that is established for couples. But let's not forget that it is an image that originates from God himself, from there we should observe: “And the head of Christ is God”. If God is the head of Christ, then Christ is a woman.

CHRIST, THE LAMB?

CHAPTER 5

The words in John 1:29 have long been considered one of the most iconic biblical passages in which the Christ is named as “the Lamb of God”.

To begin analyzing this passage we should see that the person making this statement is John the Baptist, a very popular and recognized person in history, which from the historical information the Bible gives us, we know that he had profound knowledge about the law that he and Christ followed and promoted.

For that reason, when John the Baptist would use the word “Lamb”, we must know the characteristics that the “Lamb” was required to have in order to fulfill the requirements of the law. Let's read the text of the law which addresses this issue.

EVIDENCE

John 1:29

²⁹ The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him, and said, “Behold! The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!”

EVIDENCE

Leviticus 4:32

³² If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish.

As we have read, the requirement of the law regarding the animal that was to be sacrificed in the case of the Lamb, was that it had to be a female. Therefore, by simply making a logical and reasonable application, when John refers to Christ as “The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world”, he is talking about a woman, because otherwise, he would be violating an essential requirement of the law for such sacrifice.

JOHN THE BAPTIST ANNOUNCES CHRIST

- ▶ I baptize you with water. But one who is more powerful than I will come, of whom I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. (Luke 3:16)
- ▶ You yourselves can testify that I said, I am not the Christ, but am sent ahead of Him. (John 3:28)
- ▶ It is necessary for him to increase and for me to decrease. (John 3:30)

THE NAME OF GOD

CHAPTER 6

In this prophecy proclaimed by Isaiah, we find ourselves with a promise which also leads to a question: In the days of Isaiah, wasn't the name of God Jehovah? There is an expression we do not want the reader to overlook, "in that day".

This immediately takes us to the last days, which means in this present time. Now, if we understand that God is Husband and Wife, how can we know their name today? Let's see:

EVIDENCE

John 17:26

²⁶ And I have declared to them Your name, and will declare it, that the love with which You loved Me may be in them, and I in them.

The task of announcing the name of God the husband, corresponded to the Wife, which is the Christ, and She has revealed it; his name is Melquisedec.

We must also must also discuss the name of Christ. Religion has given people the misconception that the name of Christ was Jesus Christ. But that is just a title, let's see what it really means:

Jesus: The Savior.

Christ: The anointed or chosen of God.

So then putting together to all the elements we have discussed in these 6 chapters, we would like to announce to the world that God is two in one; that God is Husband and Wife. The name of the Husband is Melquisedec, and his Wife, Christ is named Lisbet. And we close with a simple invitation.

EVIDENCE

Isaiah 52:6

⁶ Therefore my people shall know my name for this reason in that day: for even I that speak, behold, I shall be present.

EVIDENCE

John 14:13-14

¹³ And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

¹⁴ If you ask anything in My name, I will do it.

From now on, you know you should ask Melquisedec in the name of Christ, which is Lisbet. Hallelujah!

In Revelation, John said that God would reveal his new name:

"... I will write on them the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down from heaven, from my God; and my new name."
(Revelation 3:12)

We'd like to announce to the world that God is two in one, and his new name is:

MelquisedecLisbet

THE MYSTERY OF THE FATHER AND THE SON

CHAPTER 7

In chapter 17 of the book of John we can see that the conversation between God, the Father and Christ, is nothing less than words of eternal love between a Beloved Husband and his Beloved Wife.

EVIDENCE

John 17:21-24

²¹ that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me.

²² And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one:

²³ I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

Genesis 1:26

²⁶ Then God said, "Let US make man in OUR image, according to OUR likeness;...

God, the Father has always had his wife by his side, and when they created humanity in their image and likeness, it was the image of them both. Genesis 1:27 "...male and female He created them."

The son, in reality, is the wife, something very important which wicked men tried to hide.

God the Father has always had his Wife
by his side.

CONCLUSION

The purpose of these 7 chapters is to present the truth that was hidden for ages by evil and wicked men, but is now being revealed by Christ, who is present.

We would like to inform the reader that the information discussed here is even more profound and we have enough information to sustain them. Our mission is to awaken your minds and your way of thinking in order to motivate you to investigate further.

Our goal is that the world learns that Christ is present, and that through Her teachings She is offering Eternal Life to all who listen, believe and keep her word.
