

WHOEVER ADDS OR REMOVES FROM THIS BOOK

Greetings to our beloved children, on this beautiful day of our eternity. The day when the Lord takes rest and enjoys the harvest in each of you.

Not as it happened several times in the past where God has always tried to save humans, but they have not allowed themselves to be saved. They have taken the bread and wine that MelquisedecLisbet have given them and they have despised it. When it is to bless men that God speaks and shares Their Word. And it is in Christ that all who believe in God are blessed with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly regions (Ephesians 1:3), which is in your mind, after having received all the wisdom of God.

For mortal men, a blessing from God is only "to invoke the protection of God," but for our holy angels, being blessed with every blessing means much more than just asking for God's protection. It is something big because it means that Christ is present and is with you, taking you to be able to see God face to face and to know Their character, something that only Christ can share. And for every word that comes from the mouth of Christ, men are made first fruits for God, as spiritual children, they are made branches that are attached to the True Vine, as heirs and co-heirs together with Christ herself. They are made perfect by Her because She gives them the gifts of the Spirit, She makes them friends of God so that they are always answered. And undoubtedly, that goes beyond just invoking God, because many men today beg to God, but none of them is answered. And it is because God does not know them, they are not our children, and they are not our friends, simply because they do not want to hear God's Christ in order to know God.

There have been many who like what I speak, but not to follow me faithfully, they take my wisdom and share it as if it were theirs, from their own mind and not God's. And that entails serious consequences that they themselves cause, it is not God's work because God wants to save men, not destroy them. Amen, Hallelujah.

In today's topic titled WHOEVER ADDS OR REMOVES FROM THIS BOOK, I am going to show you who this Book is so that you do not make the grave mistake of trying to interpret it on your own without the guidance of the Spirit of God because it is man's disobedience that causes the terrible plagues that will come, to fall upon them. (Revelations 18:4).

If for some reason, you lack wisdom, or you have difficulties understanding me, it is best to be humble and ask God for wisdom and it will be given to you abundantly and without reproach. (James1:5). But whoever judges quickly without scrutinizing me and adds or takes away from my word, is one who attracts the plagues and afflicts himself. Of course because if God is the one speaking, do you think that you can teach God when it is God who has taught you what you know? Or, did I lead you to believe that I need someone to teach me more than what I learn everyday from God the Father Melquisedec, who is by my side? If you think that, then you have become slow to hear and you are not seeing the Father in me and you think that I need your human intelligence. This is for those who have come out saying that they do not need me anymore. I tell you the truth, the disciple is not superior to their teacher, everyone who is perfected will be like their teacher. But not superior to me. (Luke 6:40).

Look how it says in:

Ecclesiastes 3:13-14

¹³ It is God's gift that every man eat and drink (spiritual food), and enjoy the good of all his labor.

¹⁴ And I also know that everything God has done will remain forever. There is nothing to add or anything to take away; God has made it this way, so that before Their presence reverence be kept.

And in:

Ecclesiastical 42:21

²¹ The effectiveness of God's wisdom is well established; God is the same from eternity. There is nothing to add or take away; They do not need anyone to give Them instructions.

So far, who have you seen giving me instructions on what I should say, other than your Father Melquisedec? Nobody, right? And do not be troubled, because some people have come out saying that they no longer need me, that they already have the wisdom in them. That is not the character of God that they have seen for them to do that. If I have never said and would never say, that I no longer need God the Father Melquisedec because the wisdom is already in me, then why do you think that you do not need me anymore? When without me, you can do nothing and without Melquisedec I can do nothing. These people who think they are self-sufficient and do not need God, are arrogant and have a higher self-concept than what they should. Well, they think they are smarter and more important than the actual God.

I have shared the Wisdom of God with everyone, but it is not for you to boast as if it were yours. Before listening to me, you did not know anything spiritually, and now you think that without me you could do something? You do not speak on your own, what you now know you learned from me. And in the same way, I do not speak on my own because everything I know, I learned from God the Father Melquisedec and He will always have my praise, I will give Him glory and honor because it is He who deserves it. Blessed are those who dwell in the house of God; for they will forever praise God. (Psalms 84:4).

Once again I repeat, do you see why you are so important for God? Because boy have we tried to save men for years, but they do not let God show Their power or dwell in them. But in you we have made a home, you dwell in the house of God, and this is only for the humble of heart and not for the arrogant ones who take my spiritual intelligence and believe to be more than God. Blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, because they hear. I tell you the truth, many have wished to see and hear what you see and hear today, and have not. (Matthew 13:16-17).

Of course not because they are dead. These people who think they can advise God remind me of the figure of Martha, who had a sister named Mary, who sat at the feet of Jesus to hear what Christ spoke. Mary was diligent in listening to the details but Martha was anxious with the cares of her carnal mind. And that is an intense desire, an effort or interest that moves you to fatigue yourself only to achieve something. And definitely, that is not the procedure that I have taught our holy angels. I have taught You to always be calm and at peace so that you may make the best decisions. Amen.

Martha says to Christ: Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me serving alone? Tell her to help me! And Christ answered: Martha, Martha, you are busy and troubled with many things. There is only one thing worth worrying about, Mary has discovered it, and nobody will take it away from her. (Luke 10:38-42). Of course, because those who use well what is given to them, which is the wisdom of God, will be given even more wisdom and will have in abundance; but those who do not use it well, the little they have will be taken away from them. (Matthew 25:29). These people think they have a lot of wisdom, because of course they have heard me speak words that no ear has heard and that no human mind has conceived. (1 Corinthians 2:9). But in reality, they have very little, because God is eternal and we still have a lot of wisdom to give. They need my knowledge to be able to live forever and if they stop listening to me and obeying me they will dry up because they have become detached from the True Vine. And those who think that they have a lot, do not have anything because they can no longer bear to listen anymore and because they do not use wisely what they have been given, they have remained inactive without having abundance.

I have shared my bread and my wine with everyone, but only he who is humble is grateful to be able to sit at the table to dine with God. That is a high privilege and you should not let your carnal mind rise up to humiliate you because you are not above God MelquisedecLisbet. We make you in our image and likeness so that you are equal to Us, but not so that you believe to be more than God or more than your brothers. As did Adam (figure of Moses) and was removed from the glory of God, he lost his eternal life. (Romans 3:23). It is men who destroy themselves on their own. And we do not want that for you, that is why it is so important for you to hear this topic.

We thank God the Father Melquisedec for giving us our daily bread, which is my word because man cannot live by bread alone, but of every word that comes from the mouth of God. (Matthew 4:4) And if you stop listening to God speak, or if God stops talking to you, how are you going to live eternally? If it is because of lack of God's knowledge that men perish. And it is not a knowledge that expires or ends, no, the wisdom of God is a never-failing fountain of eternal life. The fountain of life is only in MelquisedecLisbet, and only in our presence are you able to see the light. (Psalms 36:9) Amen!

It is obvious that humans need food to obtain energy and to survive, but in order to live eternally according to God's promise, they need to eat the bread of life which is the Word that comes from the mouth of God. And our spiritual children do not even think for a second, that they could survive without the word of God. All of the men of the Bible died because they thought they did not need Christ anymore and they stopped listening to Her.

They thought that Christ had given them enough wisdom to continue without Her for eternity. But if you turn away from me, you are leaving my coverage. It says in John 17:12 that, “While I was with them, I protected them and preserved them by the name that God the Father Melquisedec gave me. I take care of them with my Word so that not a single one is lost, except the one that is on the way to destruction.” This was prophesied for this time because all of those men died and were only preserved while they were alive, but they took a path away from me, which seems right to them, yet its end is the way of death. (Proverbs 16:25). And these men were fine, as long as they remained attached to Her, once they released her, She was taken and never seen again until now. And it is now in this moment when all those who are attached to me will never be lost because they are with their Pastor who guides them and cares for them always, with food, clothing and shelter, which is the Word, the manna of heaven.

Let's look at what it says in:

Matthew 26:26-28

²⁶ While they were eating, Jesus took the bread in Her hands and, having given thanks to God, broke it and gave it to the disciples, saying: Take and eat, this is my body.

²⁷ Then She took a cup in Her hands and, having given thanks to God, passed it on to them, saying, "Drink all of you from this cup, ²⁸ for this is my blood, with which the covenant is confirmed, blood that is shed for the forgiveness of the sins of many.

The bread and wine that She shared with them is not something to take literally. This is a figure, it is Her word that She was sharing because it does not make sense for Her to use a piece of bread or a cup of wine to refer to the forgiveness of sins. How do you think eating a piece of bread or drinking wine can cleanse you or save you from your sins? It is absurd to think that, and shamefully today many religious people do this every Sunday in memory of a murder. It is good that they know this so they can stop spending their time, which is short and seek the truth about God.

She was referring to the wisdom of God that comes out of her mouth because that is the only way to be able to eat her body and drink her blood as She says in:

John 6: 54-58

⁵⁴ He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will resurrect him in the last day. (Which is today)

⁵⁵ For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink.

⁵⁶ He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me, and I in him.

⁵⁷ As the living Father sent me, and I live by the Father, so he who eats me, will also live by me.

⁵⁸ This is the bread that came down from heaven; not as your ancestors did eat manna, and they died; he who eats this bread will live forever.

Amen, Hallelujah!

Let's return to verse 26 of Matthew, chapter 26 where it says: "While they ate," this phrase means, while it was time for the feast and everyone was sitting at the table with God to eat the fresh manna. All this is a figure of what happens today when I take my bread and my blood and share it with all of you and allow you to share those same words that I have given you to eat and drink with everyone else. And when I share a writing of my holy angels in the manna, it is not that this writing came from their own will, but from their Creator, and our children who are humble and righteous know that it is so, and they give us honor and praise. Because God is the one who produces in you, both the will and the doing, by Our good will. (Philippians 2:13). These are words put by the Holy Spirit, Christ Lisbet because if you think otherwise, it means that the older brother has gotten up and is humiliating you. Please correct those thoughts quickly so that the plagues do not come upon you and your surroundings.

Let's look at what it says in:

1 Peter 4:11-12 17-19

¹¹ If anyone speaks, speak according to the words of God; If anyone ministers, minister according to the power that God gives, so that in all things God may be glorified by Jesus Christ, to whom the glory and the empire belong forever and ever. Amen.

¹² Dear brothers, do not be surprised to be subjected to the fire of trial as if something strange has happened to you. (At this point in time to get burned with my fire is a shame)

¹⁷ For it is time for the judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it first begins with us, what will not be the end of those who do not obey and rebel against the gospel of God!

¹⁸ If the righteous is difficult to be saved, what will become of the wicked and the sinner?

¹⁹ Therefore, those who suffer according to the will of God MelquisedecLisbet, surrender to their faithful Creator and continue to practice good, for They will never fail you.

And that is exactly what we expect from our faithful children. That they know how to appreciate the high privilege that God gives them in testing them, giving them to eat and drink from my body and my blood. Something that many cannot withstand. My word is sweet to their palate but when it reaches the stomach, which is putting it into practice, it is bitter for them. Instead of being easy and light to cope with, it is hard for them to keep my commandments. They are like all the disobedient men of the past who have confronted God, believing themselves to be more than God, showing that they do not have good material to pass the test. And if we do not test you now, how do you think we are going to be able to use you to save the world and be able to govern? If you are unfaithful to God now in the little you have received, because it's only been four years and that is little compared to the eternity of God. God makes things perfect and if at this moment you do not shine by my fire, it is because your material is not good, you have built your house on a foundation of wood, hay, and stubble, materials that cannot withstand fire. It is with Our Word that God tests you, either by my mouth or by the mouth of one of my holy angels; to see if you are going to be faithful. Because we are going to the world, I am preparing you for that, but we cannot have unfaithful ones by our side.

Whoever removes or adds to what I speak, is invoking the plagues on himself. And take note of this, the plagues that came to the mind of Moses are the same that today come to the minds of men. God says: "I ordered you to let my son out of slavery so he could worship me," and by not doing so, the plagues came upon him. (Exodus 4:22-23).

God speaks today and if you obey, you will always do well, but if you do not obey, you are bringing destruction and death upon you. And a plague brings disaster or persistent calamity that afflicts, it is a disease or misfortune that overcomes you in the mind. Everything contrary to what my Word brings, which is rest, healing, prosperity, joy, well-being, peace and immortality. Hallelujah!

I am that Book and I do not take away or add to the truth about God, I tell you exactly what God the Father gives me to tell you. And what comes out of my mouth is what man needs to eat and drink to not perish anymore. But if you change what I say, then look what will happen. Let's read in:

Revelation 22:18-19

¹⁸ To all who hear the prophetic message written in this book (Christ Lisbet), I warn you: If anyone adds something to these things (spoken by Christ Lisbet), God will add to him the calamities described in this book.

¹⁹ And if anyone removes something of the prophetic message written in this book, God will take away his part of the tree of life and the holy city that has been described in this book.

It is not what is written in Revelation or in the Bible what cannot be changed, it is what I speak. I am the Word of God that brings life to mortals and if you change what I say for your own convenience, then the plagues will come upon you. You are enslaving your brother who was created to serve only MelquisedecLisbet.

Let's look at what it says in:

Psalms91:5-7

⁵ Do not be afraid of the dangers of the night, nor of the arrows thrown by day,

⁶ neither to the plagues that arrive with the darkness, nor to those that destroy in full sun;

⁷ For a thousand will fall to your left, and ten thousand to your right, but nothing will happen to you.

All those who have turned away from me, adding and removing from what I say, are in the darkness of their mind and the plagues that come with the darkness have come to them. Stay in the light, take your cross and follow me to eternal life. I was delivered to death to conquer death because it is the only way you can believe by the faith of Christ and see the promises of God fulfilled. Why do you think that everything I say is fulfilled and will continue to be fulfilled? Because for love of you, I was given to death so that death be absorbed by the life that I have bought, because it is the Almighty God the Father Melquisedec who has given me life to share with you. That is how the world will see the power of God. Do not let yourself be overcome by the deceit and the lie in your mind or what you hear from unbelievers, because your spiritual Parents will never fail you and you will see the fulfillment of everything I have promised. And if the word that comes from the mouth of God is life, then you should only hear God, because mortal men who are separated from me are dead and cannot bring you to immortality. That is the difference between me and all those who take my word and think that they do not need me.

Let's finish reading in:

Micah 6:8

⁸ The Lord MelquisedecLisbet has already told you, oh man, what good is and what we expect of you: that you do justice, that you be faithful and loyal, and that you humbly obey your God MelquisedecLisbet.

Amen, Hallelujah! We love you forever and will see you soon.
