

THE HOLY ANGELS OF MELQUISEDECLISBET

Parents, with reverent fear, I send you this writing that You gave me this past Sunday. I say it was given because without Your mind in me this would not be possible.

Holy angels and faithful brothers, stars of the womb of Christ Lisbet, in this writing we will see the eternal love of our spiritual Parents. And it is also for me, because we all want to reach the stature of the perfect man who is Christ Lisbet and thus fully enjoy everything that was promised. This writing is titled:

THE HOLY ANGELS OF MELQUISEDECLISBET

What do MelquisedecLisbet ask of Their holy angels? That we live orderly lives, in holiness, having a clean and pure mind, listening well to the details, retaining the words of Christ Lisbet and being obedient and faithful, according to the Order of MelquisedecLisbet.

What does it mean to live according to the Order of MelquisedecLisbet? It means imitating Christ Lisbet in everything we do and say:

- Being humble, recognizing that everything we have, we know and we are, is thanks to MelquisedecLisbet.
- Not seeking glory for the things we do, but do it all without any self-interest, only seeking to give honor and glory to MelquisedecLisbet who give us the privilege of understanding their instructions and being able to live according to them. Because whoever lives this way, knows that there is no greater honor and glory than that which the Lord gives us.
- Being fair and wise in the decisions we make every day, for Christ Lisbet has given us all Her wisdom and She is just in everything She does.
- Speaking with the truth at all times. By doing this, MelquisedecLisbet will always back-up our words. But this does not mean hurting others in the process of telling them the truth, because for that She gave us Her wisdom and love. So we may know how to say things so that we can help others without offending or hurting them and without speaking poorly of anyone.
- Doing everything with the genuine love of MelquisedecLisbet. By thinking first of the other person than yourself. Just as Christ Lisbet does everything for the great love She has for God the Father, and He has done everything for the great love for his wife Lisbet. She always thinks first of Him, rather than of Herself.
- Love and respect go hand in hand. It is the respect that one has for the other that Christ Lisbet, our example to follow does not do anything that the Father does not authorize.
- Not depart ourselves from the True Vine, nor stop congregating for unfair and foolish reasons, so that we don't dry up.
- Following the instructions of MelquisedecLisbet in order to keep a clean and pure mind, submitting the older brother with love and feeding the younger brother daily with the Truth, listening, retaining and obeying Their words of eternal life.

Holy angels, our Mother has told us: "those of the world will see you as a good luck charm, since everything you take on will prosper".

But, how do you think we can be that good luck charm for others if we do not fully live this beautiful eternal life that MelquisedecLisbet give us? It is necessary to live that life of order in the place where MelquisedecLisbet have put us to shine. It is not a coincidence where we work, the place of study we attend or the neighborhood where we live, because our spiritual Parents do everything with purpose. It is necessary to be grateful for what we have in our surroundings and for all that we have been given. It is important to understand that it is where we are at this moment, where They want us to shine like the stars that we are, of the womb of Christ Lisbet.

When we fulfill Their purpose in that place, whether it be for our own learning and formation of the inner man or to be open letters for those around us to see the wonderful power of what it means to be a holy angel of MelquisedecLisbet, or it may be that we are lead to do something different, like living somewhere else or even a new place of study, it is always with the intention of prospering us. The important thing is to have patience, to wait in joy and to know how to give thanks in everything and for everything, that is going from Lisbet in Lisbet.

We should not have any fear, but trust fully in the Almighty God who fulfills Their Word. So do not be afraid to have dreams and aspirations in life. Do not think that your desire should only be to collaborate in King of Salem because you think that is what pleases MelquisedecLisbet. Our spiritual Parents desire to have holy angels everywhere, representing them well at all times so that we can prosper in everything we do. We should only try to live as we have learned from Christ Lisbet, our Helpmate, so we may represent them well, in that way we give honor and glory to our spiritual Parents. Although it is a great honor and privilege to be able to collaborate with anything in this powerful eternal Kingdom, our spiritual Parents love us all equally and do not think more or less of any of us. We are Their greatest treasure, Their beloved children, whether we collaborate with Them directly in the King of Salem or simply by representing them well wherever we are and in everything we do, that is what makes us worthy to be called Their HOLY ANGELS. This is how we will change the world, and dear brother this world is very large.

Having said all of the above, it is important to keep in mind that we cannot be worthy representatives of MelquisedecLisbet and speak of how Christ Lisbet is bringing peace, joy, healing, and love to all who believe in Her; and for us to not obey Her instructions or living in Her perfect law.

Let's see what it is to represent peace, joy, healing and love as Christ Lisbet does.

Peace: To live getting along well with everyone, in tranquility and relaxed. We cannot be arguing about everything, always wanting to be right. We can not be instigating fights and having a bad attitude. Do not be influenced by the thoughts of others or by what happens around you; whether it is your family, your friends, your work, where you study or even the government of the country where you live. We should not rejoice when something bad happens to someone or even say, "Well, that happened to them because of their evilness, because they are disobedient and foolish." That may be true, but remember that we are called to be peacemakers and not troublemakers, sowing discord.

We can not be happy to see someone reap bad. We must leave EVERYTHING from the past dispensation behind us, that is something that the Antichrist taught us to do. If we did not think like he did, that person would do badly and he taught us to rejoice in that.

But MelquisedecLisbet tell us that we can not rejoice in evil. For they have us here, to fix the world, leading all men to live in peace which is Christ Lisbet who is all that is good, pure and worthy. While it is true that everything that man sows, he will reap, we must rejoice when the harvest is good. Rejoice in helping and doing good. As our brothers in Cuba did, bringing water to Japhethites and foolish virgins alike, showing the love we have learned from Christ Lisbet with their righteous actions. If you can help someone at some point, do it, because our spiritual Parents are pleased with our good attitude, nobility and compassion.

Joy: To be grateful for the many blessings in our lives. Without complaining, but enjoying everything, every detail and every day to the fullest. The sun, the rain, the heat, the cold, the breeze of the air and the beautiful vegetation of nature. See Their power in a leafy tree with leaves of different colors, and also see Their power in a tree that loses its leaves for a time and then recovers them again. Everything created is precious and perfect, God the Father did it for his Wife and our Mother shares it with us so that we can all enjoy it. When She spoke to the sun to come out again in Houston, She did not make it shine only for Her holy angels, She also allowed all people in Houston to enjoy it and their hearts were filled with joy, happiness and hope. Hallelujah!

Health: To say that Christ Lisbet is our healing and therefore we will not see death and we will live forever, is something serious and respectful. We can not lose the reverent fear of our spiritual Parents. You can not speak to someone about healing and at the same time promoting medicines or alternative treatments for people to put their hope or faith only in that, instead of putting their trust and faith in MelquisedecLisbet. MelquisedecLisbet are the ones who heal our minds and as we go submitting the older brother to live in the perfect Order of MelquisedecLisbet and as we correct everything in our environment, our body is healed.

That does not mean that if you work in the area of medicine you have to stop doing it. If you are doing that, it is because you have compassion for others and you want to help them feel better, but in one way or another, we find a way to share this word of life. Remember that MelquisedecLisbet do everything calmly, without rushing, and it will take time for the foolish ones and Japhethites around the world to come to believe and understand Christ Lisbet. Meanwhile, there will be many who need your care and knowledge according to your area of expertise.

However, there is a difference between doing your job correctly and honestly, and trying to get your brother or another person to rely more on medicines or alternative treatments, than on MelquisedecLisbet. Beloved brother, let's analyze our surroundings well, and act with the wisdom they have given us, making good decisions in everything we do.

Love: MelquisedecLisbet are the essence of love. They tell us that love is the most powerful weapon we have. They tell us that love is an action and we must do everything with love.

When we present this beautiful Word of Life, we must do it with respect and love, we can not do it trying to make the other person look ignorant or stupid. Let us always think before speaking and not rush, doing everything patiently and calmly. If we don't have something wise to say that is accompanied by love, then we are better off keeping silent and not talking. Sometimes the best word is the one that is not spoken because even if it is the truth if you do not say it with love, they are like words that are taken by the wind. Our approach must be that of a holy angel, and not of a fool because we are representing Christ Lisbet. Therefore, we must follow the example of our Helpmate and do everything as She does. She teaches us with such patience and tells us that everything takes time. We can not get tired of loving.

MelquisedecLisbet have told us that we should help each other with love. The keyword is with LOVE. If you see that one of your brothers needs to correct something, you can help them, but with love. Not judging them badly nor speaking poorly about them with anyone. Just speak the words of Christ Lisbet that you have learned, have retained which have helped you to obey. Without offending your brother or making them feel bad or inferior. Brother, remember that if you have come to understand, it is not because you are better than your brother. Our Mother exhorts us with love and if sometimes She uses some stronger words, it is because She is our Mother. But between siblings, the correct thing is to help each other on the path to perfection, that is why we exhort one another with love. The same applies to the way we treat foreigners, those we were sent to save.

Beloved brothers, we are so privileged that our spiritual Parents love us so much and all of us equally. They use every one of us in the different areas of work, study places, and countries so that we may shine as Their children of Light, fixing our environment with our just actions, with good attitudes and words of love because without the love of God we are nothing.

We are Their Holy Angels that are healing the world, how beautiful.

Honor, glory, and exaltation to the God who lives forever, MelquisedecLisbet!

Amen, Hallelujah!
