

A greeting full of love and gratitude to our beloved Parents MelquisedecLisbet in this beautiful day of eternal joy, peace, and love.

Parents, thank You for the enormous privilege of being able to share Your love poured out on me with my spiritual brothers through this document titled:

TO NOT FORGIVE AND FORGET, CREATES ROOTS OF BITTERNESS

Beloved brothers, we, the children of MelquisedecLisbet have had the privilege of experiencing the "clean slate." Our beloved Parents have shown us Their great love by forgiving and forgetting everything we did and even our thoughts, that were not in the correct order of God. Christ Lisbet came to make all things new and to form the new man created according to God.

As it says in:

Isaiah 43:18-19 and 25

18 Do not remember the former things, nor be reminded of the ancient things.

19 Behold, I am doing a new thing; it will soon come to light; will you not know it? Again I will open a path in the desert, and rivers in solitude.

25 I, I am who cut off your transgressions for my own love, and I will not remember your sins.

Knowing this has brought us so much peace and rest. This opportunity has allowed us to correct what is deficient and has removed all sentiment of guilt in us because we have experienced the great Love of God face to face. Amen, Hallelujah!

Now the question is, if God has shown us how to forgive and forget, then why don't we do the same?

Let's start by seeing what a root of bitterness means:

Root: Origin or cause of something. Hidden part of something, from which the visible part proceeds.

Bitterness: It is the feeling of deep sorrow, pain, and displeasure that a person can experience as a consequence of some situation or event that happens in their life.

The root of Bitterness: The origin and hidden part of a situation that causes us pain, grief or displeasure.

Beloved brothers, we must follow the example of our Helpmate Christ Lisbet, to forgive and forget. We cannot say that we have forgiven someone, whether a spiritual brother, a foolish one or a foreigner and continue to remember what happened, with sadness or pain. If you keep talking about the situation with discomfort or pain and continue to bring that to your memory, then you have not forgotten. If you are waiting to see the person reap according to what they sowed, you have not forgotten nor forgiven them.

Remember that revenge does not belong to us. “Well, we know the one who said: Mine is vengeance, I will give the payment, says the Lord Christ Lisbet. God will judge Their people.” (Hebrews 10:30).

“Do not avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God. So, if your enemy is spiritually hungry, feed them the body of Christ Lisbet; if they have spiritual thirst, give them to drink of the blood of Christ Lisbet; for in so doing, you will burn coals of fire on their head, which means, you will make them ashamed of their conduct and correct themselves before the Lord. Let us not be overcome by evil, and triumph over evil in doing good.” (Romans 12: 19-21).

Anger should only be in the hands of God because it is our spiritual Parents who know what is best for Their children. Let us be like Them * who are tender and kind and who do not get angry easily. And it's because They love us so much and are willing to forgive us, They're always willing to refrain and not punish. (Joel 2:13).

But if we always think of the bad and not the good, that makes the mind accommodate evil and a root of bitterness forms.

You may speak and greet the person who offended you with the language of the King of Salem, but your older brother is deceiving you into thinking that you actually forgave them. But if you do not forget the situation completely, and stop thinking about it or mentioning it, you will not be able to remove that root of bitterness.

Do we ever hear our Mother complain at any time about how much She suffered for every insult, every blasphemy, every lie or every contempt that was addressed to Her from her foolish children or even from those who cannot stand the cleanliness of Her fire and abandon God? NO, She only speaks clearly of the order that must exist in her Kingdom, of the righteousness and holiness in which we must live and that it must be reflected in everything we do.

She does not speak of the situation or of the person. Why? Because the Love of MelquisedecLisbet surpasses everything. That is why what we constantly hear Her say is: “my children, still have an opportunity to correct themselves.” The LOVE that Christ Lisbet shows us is so pure and perfect. “As it corresponds to all the people of God MelquisedecLisbet, I expect that we can understand, how wide, how long, how high and how deep is Their love. It is our desire that we experience the love of Christ Lisbet, even though it is too great to understand all of it. Then we will be complete with all the fullness of life and power that comes from God.” (Ephesians 3:18-19).

Don't you think that if God, being the Creators of all things, as Omnipotent and Sovereign, give us this example of love to follow, being in a physical body equal to ours, that we should be able to do the same?

Of course we can, otherwise, God would not ask us to do this, giving us this example to follow.

Paying close attention to the details is also to understand the example to follow, to observe the procedure of Christ Lisbet and to understand Her instructions, without needing to tell you with specific words. For he who is docile to the voice of the Lord MelquisedecLisbet, has an ear to hear what the Holy Spirit tells us.

Think of a moment when something has happened in your life and you share it with your mother in the flesh, and she hugs you and looks at you with love and tenderness, even though she does not tell you anything, that comforts you and you feel loved. Or, she may share a personal experience with you and does not tell you exactly what you should do with your situation. But, you still take the teaching that she shared with you and it helps you along the way. Well, our Spiritual Mother does this with even greater excellence.

As we grow, our natural parents speak to us and treat us differently. They delegate more responsibility to us so that we learn to make good decisions and become responsible adults.

In the same way, little by little our Mother Lisbet has given us her Wisdom and as we have grown spiritually, She demands more cleanliness and holiness. Now our Mother is treating us as maturing children and not as fluctuating children, so we must behave as such. We must be firm in what we have believed with all the abundant evidence provided to us, and not allow anything or anyone to make us doubt or fluctuate.

Holy angels, we are in the stage of maturity and have left the stage of immaturity. It is time to take responsibility for each of our actions. Enough with the childishness, that time is over, MelquisedecLisbet want faithful and constant children.

As our brother, AldemarAndrea said, "it is time to show our Parents what we are made of." We cannot blame others for the situations that happen to us, it is our responsibility to correct our environment with the Wisdom that has been given to us. So forgive and forget anything that has caused you pain or sadness, because that does not do any good to you nor the people with whom you share your resentment. Do not let any root embitter your spirit and contaminate the cleanliness, purity, and holiness that MelquisedecLisbet has brought to your mind. "And do not sadden the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption." (Ephesians 4:30). We have been redeemed from the slavery in our minds that was killing us and in gratitude to our spiritual Parents, what we should do is give thanks at all times for the eternal life that has been freely given to us, and stop complaining and remembering the past.

We should already try more diligently to understand well what our Mother has been warning us about during these four years, do not believe that you can deceive God. Each one will reap what he has sown. (Galatians 6:7). So let's start sowing well to reap the best in everything, just as our spiritual Parents have shown us.

We cannot take our Parents' warnings lightly. This is something serious and of much responsibility, that is why it is necessary to be polished like gold, to be able to shine like the children of light that we are. As our Mother has told us, "lay deep roots in the love of God."

MelquisedecLisbet have recruited Their army, and They have given us an eternity to sow only good every day. Like the good soldiers we are, let's make sure we receive all the honors that are reserved for us.

Amen, Hallelujah!
